Counselor Recommendation Form

I am applying for admittance into the Life Challenge of Western North Carolina residential discipleship program. In order to complete my application, I need a counselor, pastor, psychologist or social worker to complete the following reference form regarding my current status. I give permission and authorize you to release the information requested below to Life Challenge of WNC. I also give you permission to release any counseling notes, assessments, and summaries to help make the best decision for my recovery. After completion, this form is to be mailed or faxed directly to the center - do not return the form to me.
